

Notice to those who visit our site

With regards to the texts of the present publication

The authors of the present publication aimed first and foremost to liberalize access to intellectual property by making it affordable to the general public and to distribute its benefits equitably among people, in consideration of their material or moral interests, in accordance with articles 1, 17, 22 and 27 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights.

This published work is the result of its authors' research, analysis and a logical and philosophical approach that formulates the criteria for validating a Work of the Mind, based on principles established by the Berne Convention and the Universal Convention on Copyright.

In accordance with the policy of Intellectual Property institutes and offices worldwide to disclaim responsibility of their texts in official documents, the information contained in the present work is for guidance purpose only, and should not be quoted or interpreted as texts of law. All or part of the present work can become obsolete at any time, without prior notice. The legal basis for this work can be found in the laws governing patents, design patents (registered drawings and/or models), trademarks and copyright, the regulations related thereto as well as the judicial interpretation of such texts by tribunals.

* * *